Ref. No.: EVT2405649

Information Sheet

Introduction

The Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material (CPPNM) was adopted in 1979 and entered into force in 1987. On 8 July 2005, States Parties to the Convention adopted, by consensus, an Amendment to the Convention in order to broaden its scope, which entered into force on 8 May 2016. The Convention and its Amendment are the only international legally binding undertakings in the area of physical protection of nuclear material and of nuclear facilities used for peaceful purposes.

Objectives

The objective of the meeting is to discuss matters within the scope of the CPPNM and the Amendment thereto with particular emphasis on improving mechanisms for information sharing and promoting universalization of the Amendment through adherence to it by States that are not yet party to it. Further to a recommendation of the 2024 Technical Meeting of the Representatives of States Parties to the CPPNM and CPPNM Amendment, there will be an informal meeting of the Parties to the Amendment to the CPPNM to discuss preparations for the conference to review the implementation of the Convention as amended and its adequacy as concerns the preamble, the whole of the operative part and the annexes in the light of the then prevailing situation, to be held in 2027 in accordance with Article 16 of the Convention as amended. The Parties to the Amendment to the CPPNM are encouraged to submit to the Secretariat in advance of the informal meeting proposals of items for discussion at the meeting.

Target Audience

to the CPPNM and the Amendment thereto are invited to designate one or more participants for this meeting. Participants should be or represent their State Party's Point of Contact, or be senior officials of governments with responsibility for the implementation of the CPPNM and the Amendment thereto. Parties to the Amendment to the CPPNM also are encouraged to participate in the informal meeting of the Parties to the Amendment to the CPPNM to discuss preparations for the conference to review the implementation of the Convention as amended and its adequacy as concerns the preamble, the whole of the operative part and the annexes in the light of the then prevailing situation, to be held in 2027. Representatives from Permanent Missions of the Parties to the Amendment to the CPPNM are encouraged to participate in the informal consultations.
