

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
THE NUCLEAR REGULATORY AUTHORITY OF THE SLOVAK REPUBLIC
AND
THE UNITED STATES
NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION
FOR THE EXCHANGE OF TECHNICAL INFORMATION
AND
COOPERATION IN NUCLEAR SAFETY MATTERS

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
THE NUCLEAR REGULATORY AUTHORITY OF THE SLOVAK REPUBLIC
AND
THE UNITED STATES
NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION
FOR THE EXCHANGE OF TECHNICAL INFORMATION
AND
COOPERATION IN NUCLEAR SAFETY MATTERS

Whereas the Nuclear Regulatory Authority of the Slovak Republic and the United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission, the two together hereinafter referred to as the Participants, wish to execute this Memorandum of Understanding for the exchange of technical information and cooperation in nuclear safety matters (hereinafter referred to as the "Memorandum");

Having a mutual interest in a continuing exchange of information pertaining to nuclear regulatory matters for peaceful purposes and of standards required or recommended by their organizations for the regulation of safety, security, the implementation of safeguards, and the environmental impact of nuclear facilities;

Having similarly cooperated under prior arrangements for the exchange of technical information and cooperation in nuclear safety matters, most recently the Arrangement between the Nuclear Regulatory Authority of the Slovak Republic and the United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission for the Exchange of Technical Information and Cooperation in Nuclear Safety Matters signed in Vienna on September 16, 2015; and

Wishing to continue in further development of the friendly relationship between the Participants;

Have reached the following understanding:

I. SCOPE OF THIS MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

A. Unclassified Technical Information Exchange

To the extent that the Participants are permitted to do so under the national laws, regulations, policies, and executive orders of their respective countries, they may cooperate and exchange unclassified technical information relating to: the regulation and oversight of safety and security for nuclear facilities and radioactive materials; the implementation of safeguards; the environmental impact of nuclear facilities and radioactive materials; and nuclear safety research programs. Examples of such information include:

1. Topical reports written by or for one of the Participants as a basis for, or in support of, regulatory decisions and policies.
2. Documents relating to significant licensing actions and safety and environmental decisions affecting nuclear facilities.
3. Detailed documents describing a Participant's process for licensing and regulating nuclear facilities and radioactive materials.
4. Information in the field of nuclear safety research either in the possession of one of the Participants or available to it. Each Participant intends to make its best efforts to transmit immediately to the other information concerning research results that requires early attention in the interest of public safety, along with an indication of significant implications.
5. Reports on operating experience for nuclear facilities and/or experience with radioactive materials, such as reports on nuclear incidents, accidents, shutdowns, and compilations of historical reliability data on components and systems.
6. Regulatory and oversight procedures for nuclear safety, security, and safeguards (nuclear materials accountancy and control) for nuclear facilities and radioactive materials, and environmental impact evaluations for nuclear facilities.
7. Early notification of important incidents and emerging technical issues that are of immediate interest to the Participants.

B. Cooperation in Nuclear Safety Research

Cooperation for joint programs and projects of nuclear safety research and development, or those programs and projects under which activities are divided between the two Participants, including the use of test facilities and/or computer code sharing programs owned by either Participant, may be considered on a case-by-case basis and, if appropriate, may be subject to a separate agreement.

C. Training and Assignments

Within the limits of available resources and subject to the availability of appropriated funds, the Participants may cooperate in providing certain training and experiential opportunities for each other's personnel. In addition, temporary assignments of personnel by one Participant to the other Participant may also be considered on a case-by-case basis and, as generally required, may be subject to a separate agreement between the Participants. Unless otherwise decided, costs of salary, allowances, and travel of participants are expected to be paid by the Participant that incurs them.

II. ADMINISTRATION

- A. The exchange of information under this Memorandum may be accomplished through letters, reports, and other documents, and by visits and meetings arranged in advance on a case-by-case basis. Periodic meetings may be held to review the exchange of information and cooperation under this Memorandum, and to discuss topics within the scope of the cooperation. The time, place, and agenda for such meetings are expected to be decided in advance.
- B. An administrator is expected to be designated by each Participant to coordinate its exchange activities under this Memorandum. The administrators are expected to be the recipients of all documents transmitted under the exchange, including copies of all letters, unless otherwise determined or unless otherwise provided herein. The administrators are expected to be responsible for development and coordination of the scope of any exchange. One or more technical coordinators may be appointed as direct contacts for specific subject areas. These technical coordinators are expected to ensure that both administrators receive copies of all transmittals.
- C. The application or use of any information exchanged between the Participants under this Memorandum is intended to be the responsibility of the receiving Participant, and the transmitting Participant does not warrant the suitability of such information for any particular use or application.
- D. To the extent possible, each Participant intends to assist the other in obtaining information from other entities within their respective governments.

III. EXCHANGE AND USE OF INFORMATION

A. General

The Participants intend to support the widest possible dissemination of information exchanged under this Memorandum, subject to the requirements of each Participant's national laws, regulations, policies, and executive orders and the need to protect proprietary and other confidential and privileged information. However, consistent with these national laws, regulations, policies, and executive orders the Participants intend to impose, on a case-by-case basis, additional restrictions on the dissemination of information beyond those identified in this Section.

In the event that scientific and technological research activities under the umbrella of this Memorandum, including joint programs and projects under Section I.B. of this Memorandum, are expected to result in the creation of intellectual property, the allocation of rights in such allocation of property is expected to be addressed in separate agreements for such activities.

The Participants intend that the information received, and the results of the activities carried out by them under this Memorandum, are used exclusively for peaceful purposes.

B. Definitions

1. The term “information” means unclassified technical information relating to: the regulation and oversight of safety and security for nuclear facilities and radioactive materials; the implementation of safeguards; the environmental impact of nuclear facilities and radioactive materials; and nuclear safety research programs. It also includes scientific or research data, methods of assessment, or any other knowledge or information provided, created, or exchanged under this Memorandum.
2. The term “proprietary information” means information that is provided, created, or exchanged under this Memorandum that contains trade secrets or other commercial information (such that the person possessing the proprietary information may derive a commercial benefit from it or commercial advantage over those persons not possessing it).
3. The term “other confidential or privileged information” means information other than “proprietary information” that is protected from public disclosure under the national laws, regulations, policies, or executive orders of the country of the Participant transmitting the information under this Memorandum.

C. Documentary Proprietary Information

1. A Participant receiving documentary proprietary information is expected to respect the confidential or privileged nature of such information.
2. Marking Procedures for Documentary Proprietary Information
 - a. A Participant transmitting documentary proprietary information under this Memorandum intends to clearly mark proprietary information on each page of the document with the following restrictive legend:

“Proprietary Information: Do not share without the written consent of (insert name of transmitting Participant)”

- b. The receiving Participant intends not to make public any documentary proprietary information bearing this restrictive legend or otherwise disseminate the documentary proprietary information in any manner inconsistent with or contrary to the provisions of this Memorandum without the prior written consent of the transmitting Participant.
- c. The receiving Participant is expected to confirm that this restrictive legend appears on any photocopy or other reproduction of documents containing documentary proprietary information made by the receiving Participant.
- d. In the event that the transmitting Participant shares documentary proprietary information without the required restrictive legend, the transmitting Participant intends to inform the receiving Participant at the earliest possible opportunity and provide the receiving Participant with properly marked documents bearing the restrictive legend.
- e. The receiving Participant is expected to make its best efforts to gather and prevent the further dissemination of the improperly marked documents containing proprietary information and replace them with properly marked documents.
- f. In the event that the receiving Participant shares documentary proprietary information in a manner that is inconsistent with or contrary to the provisions of this Memorandum, the receiving Participant is expected to promptly notify the transmitting Participant.

3. Dissemination of Documentary Proprietary Information

- a. The receiving Participant may disseminate documentary proprietary information received under this Memorandum without the prior consent of the transmitting Participant to employees of the receiving Participant, and to other government entities of the receiving Participant, provided that:
 - i. A case-by-case determination documents that such employees and other government entities have a need-to-know for the information to perform their official duties;
 - ii. The receiving Participant confirms that such employees and other government entities do not intend to use the documentary proprietary information for any non-governmental or private commercial purpose; and
 - iii. Such documentary proprietary information bears the restrictive legend set forth in Section III.C.2.a. of this Memorandum.
- b. The receiving Participant may disseminate documentary proprietary information more widely than otherwise permitted under the provisions set forth in this Memorandum, including to contractors and consultants of the receiving Participant, and to permittees or licensees of the receiving

Participant, with the prior written consent of the transmitting Participant. The Participants intend to grant such approval to the extent permitted by their respective national laws, regulations, policies, and executive orders and provided that:

- i. A case-by-case determination documents that such recipients have a need-to-know for the documentary proprietary information to carry out work solely within the scope of their work assignment, contract, permit, or license with the receiving Participant;
 - ii. Such recipients have executed a non-disclosure agreement;
 - iii. Such recipients do not use such documentary proprietary information for any non-governmental or private commercial purpose; and
 - iv. Such recipients use the documentary proprietary information only for activities carried out under or within the terms of their specific work assignment, contract, permit or license.
- c. The Participants intend to consult and seek written clarification when questions arise as to the proper handling and dissemination of documentary proprietary information provided under this Memorandum.

D. Other Confidential or Privileged Information of a Documentary Nature

1. A Participant receiving other confidential or privileged information of a documentary nature intends to respect the confidential nature of such information.
2. Marking Procedures for Other Confidential or Privileged Information of a Documentary Nature
 - a. A Participant transmitting other confidential or privileged information under this Memorandum intends to confirm that any document containing such information is appropriately and clearly marked on each page of the document with the restrictive legend applicable to the type of other confidential or privileged information being transmitted in accordance with the transmitting Participant's national laws, regulations, policies, and executive orders.
 - b. The receiving Participant intends to confirm that the appropriate restrictive legend appears on any photocopy or other reproduction of documents containing other confidential or privileged information made by the receiving Participant.
 - c. The transmitting Participant intends to confirm that any other confidential or privileged information of a documentary nature transmitted under this Memorandum is accompanied by a statement that the information being transmitted is protected from public disclosure by the national laws, regulations, policies, or executive orders of the government of the transmitting Participant and is being provided under the condition that the receiving Participant intends to afford the information substantially the same degree of protection as the government of the transmitting Participant.

- d. In the event that the transmitting Participant shares other confidential or privileged information of a documentary nature without the appropriate required restrictive legend for the type of information being transmitted, the transmitting Participant intends to inform the receiving Participant at the earliest possible opportunity and provide the receiving Participant with properly marked documents bearing the restrictive legend.
- e. The receiving Participant is expected to make its best efforts to gather and prevent the further dissemination of the improperly marked documents containing other confidential or privileged information and replace them with properly marked documents.
- f. In the event that the receiving Participant shares other confidential or privileged information of a documentary nature in a manner that is inconsistent with or contrary to the provisions of this Memorandum, the receiving Participant is expected to promptly notify the transmitting Participant.

3. Dissemination of Other Confidential or Privileged Information of a Documentary Nature

- a. The receiving Participant may disseminate other confidential and privileged information of a documentary nature received under this Memorandum without the prior consent of the transmitting Participant to employees of the receiving Participant, and to other government entities of the receiving Participant, provided that:
 - i. A case-by-case determination documents that such employees and other government entities have a need-to-know for the information to perform their official duties;
 - ii. The receiving Participant is expected to confirm that such employees and other government entities do not use the other confidential or privileged information contained in the documents for any non-governmental or private commercial purpose; and
 - iii. Such documents containing the other confidential and privileged information bears the appropriate restrictive legend in accordance with the provisions of Section III.D.2.a. of this Memorandum.
- b. The receiving Participant may disseminate the documents containing the other confidential or privileged information more widely than otherwise permitted under the provisions set forth in this Memorandum, including to contractors and consultants of the receiving Participant, and to permittees or licensees of the receiving Participant, with the prior written consent of the transmitting Participant. The receiving Participant intends to abide by any restrictions on the dissemination of other confidential or privileged information of a documentary nature to third parties established by the transmitting Participant.

- c. The Participants intend to consult and seek written clarification when questions arise as to the proper handling and dissemination of other confidential or privileged information of a documentary nature shared under this Memorandum.

E. Non-Documentary Proprietary or Other Confidential or Privileged Information

Non-documentary proprietary or other confidential or privileged information provided, obtained, or transmitted under this Memorandum is expected to be treated by the Participants according to the principles specified for proprietary information in Section III.C. and as specified for other confidential or privileged information in Section III.D. of this Memorandum; provided, however, that the transmitting Participant has placed the receiving Participant on notice as to the character of the proprietary or other confidential or privileged information disseminated.

F. Consultation

If, for any reason, one of the Participants becomes aware that it will be, or may reasonably be expected to become, unable to meet any commitments under Section III of this Memorandum, it is expected to immediately inform the other Participant. The Participants intend thereafter to consult to determine an appropriate course of action.

G. Other

Nothing contained in this Memorandum precludes a Participant from using or disseminating information received without restriction from sources outside of this Memorandum.

IV. FINAL PROVISIONS

- A. The Participants intend to cooperate under this Memorandum in accordance with their respective national laws, regulations, policies, and executive orders. Nothing contained in this Memorandum requires either Participant to take any action that would be inconsistent with its existing national laws, regulations, policies, or executive orders. Should any conflict arise between the provisions of this Memorandum and those national laws, regulations, policies, or executive orders, the Participants intend to consult before any action is taken. The Participants do not intend to exchange nuclear information related to proliferation-sensitive technologies under this Memorandum.

- B. This Memorandum may be amended at any time by the mutual written consent of the Participants.
- C. Unless otherwise mutually determined, all costs resulting from cooperation pursuant to this Memorandum are the responsibility of the Participant that incurs them. The ability of the Participants to carry out their activities under this Memorandum is subject to the appropriation of funds by the appropriate governmental authority and to the national laws, regulations, policies, and executive orders applicable to the Participants.
- D. Any dispute or questions between the Participants concerning the interpretation or application of this Memorandum are expected to be settled by mutual consultation between the Participants.
- E. This Memorandum becomes effective upon signature by both Participants and is intended to remain effective for a period of 5 years. Either Participant may cease its cooperation under this Memorandum by providing written notice to the other Participant of its intent to cease cooperation under this Memorandum, which it is expected to provide at least 180 days in advance of the date it intends to cease its cooperation.
- F. All information protected under this Memorandum is expected to continue to be protected consistent with the provisions of this Memorandum after this Memorandum is no longer effective, has expired or has been discontinued, unless the Participants jointly determine otherwise in writing.

The foregoing represents the understanding reached between the Participants on the matters referred to in this Memorandum.

Signed at Vienna, Austria, on this 22 day of September 2021, in duplicate, in the Slovak and English languages, both texts having equal validity.

FOR THE NUCLEAR REGULATORY AUTHORITY OF THE SLOVAK REPUBLIC:

FOR THE UNITED STATES NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION:

[Signed]

[Signed]

Marta Žiaková
Chairperson

Christopher T. Hanson
Chairman